Summer 2-The Tiger Who Came To Tea

Fiction	Non-Fiction
Narrative-The Tiger Who Came To Tea	Report
Write a story which includes strong characterisation e.g. good or bad character. Include accurate sentence punctuation. Links to Writing Assessment Key Performance Indicators • Write sentences by sequencing sentences to form short narratives; and re-reading what has been written to check it makes sense. • Structure writing using some features of the given form. • Use the conjunction “and”. • Use descriptive language with some use of comparative and superlative adjectives. • Spell words containing each of the 40+ phonemes and common exception words taught. • Use simple past and present verbs mostly accurately. • Use capital letters, full stops and some exclamation marks and question marks to demarcate sentences. • Use spaces between words. • Form letters correctly and confidently with most letters accurate in shape and size including capital letters and digits. • Use features of standard English. Links to Reading Assessment Key Performance Indicators • Read orange banded books with 90% accuracy without overt sounding out. • Read all the common suffixes and all the common exception words at Phase 5. • Read phonically decodable two-syllable and three- syllable words. • Read automatically all the words in the list of 100 high-frequency words. • Identify the features of story texts. • Identify and comment on descriptive language. • Draw on their existing vocabulary to speculate on the meaning of new words and explain any links. • Predict what might happen based on what has been read so far. • Express personal responses, including likes and dislikes; give some reasons linked to own experiences. Transform for GDS Change the character to have the opposite traits to the first draft with a focus on comparative and superlative adjectives.
